MAKE GERMANY THAT CRUCIAL PIECE OF YOUR INTERNATIONAL RESEARCH CAREER

A Humboldt Research Fellowship offers you the opportunity to conduct your own research project in Germany. Become a member of a worldwide network sharing knowledge within and across academic disciplines.

The Alexander von Humboldt Foundation sponsors highly qualified postdoctoral and experienced researchers of all disciplines from abroad.

If you would like to do research with specialist colleagues in Germany and develop long-term collaborations, submit an application. You are free to choose your own academic host at a research institution.

With the fellowship, you will receive up to €3,600 per month plus additional benefits such as comprehensive family allowances, German lessons and a lump sum for travel expenses. You will become a member of the Humboldt Foundation's worldwide network and profit from tailored alumni sponsorship opportunities, which include further support for your cooperation with specialist colleagues in Germany.
